

SLCC's Production of "Cats" Features a Cast of Real Cats

The SLCC feral cats are hard at work in anticipation of the upcoming production of "Cats". The real cats, numbering in the dozens, will be released back into the wilds of the campus at the conclusion of the unique one-night show. DETAILS >

Fall 2019: SLCC Looks to No Longer Observe Daylight Savings

This is part of our campus-wide effort to make SLCC a sovereign state of Arizona and would significantly decrease sleeping in class.

DETAILS >

Students Blame Bad Grades on Mercury in Retrograde

In light of Mercury's bad behavior, late homework will be accepted through today with a valid copy of your birth chart. Signature from a campus fortune teller is strongly suggested.

DETAILS >

Meet the Faculty: Dr. Franklin, SLCC's First Tenured Terrier

Having recently defended his dissertation on William Shakes-paw, Dr. Franklin loves helping his students get a pe-digree. Say hi when you see him on campus smiling from ear terrier.

SLCC IN THE NEWS

- > Abraham Lincoln's Ghost Named as 2019 Tanner Forum Speaker
- > Meet SLCC Athletes: SLCC Fortnite Team!
- > VAD Department Expands to Include Balloon Artistry
- > SLCC Launching New Astrology Degree Program: Scorpions Need Not Apply
- > Funding Approved for Underground Tunnel System for Winter Travel Between Buildings
- > Tryout for SLCC's Text Message Team
- > SLCC Badminton Team Faces Snow College

MORE NEWS >

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Apr 02 - Creative Writing Center to Host 100 Poems in 100 Hours Competition
- Apr 03 - Free Documentary Screening - ALIEN V PREDATOR
- Apr 04 - Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for Personal Office
- Apr 05 - Puppy Yoga
- Apr 10 - Van Gogh to Show New Work in SLCC Art Gallery

MORE EVENTS >

IT TRAINING

- Apr 02 - How to Use Facebooks, Tweeter, and Link-a-In
- Apr 03 - Turning on your Desktop Computer
- Apr 04 - Mousepad Navigation
- Apr 09 - Screen Brightness Adjustment
- Apr 10 - Email Signatures: Dos and Don'ts
- Apr 12 - How to Avoid Using Comic Sans

MORE EVENTS >